

Attention : All Participants

All the Online Registrants are requested to complete the following registration process -

1. Payment of Registration fee (With late fee till 15th February 2010. Failing which, registration will be cancelled/abstract may not be considered for abstract book)
2. Submission of Abstract (Latest by 15th February 2010)
3. Submission of Full paper (latest 20th February 2010) .

Please also note the following

1. All foreign delegates should fill up PROFORMA-‘Personal Particulars of Foreign Scholars Coming to India’ with their CV. PROFORMA available at http://www.asianphilosophy.org/foreign_particulars.doc
2. Please note that submission of the registration fee is necessary and a must in view of the computerization process of registration, it becomes possible to generate the delegates Unique Registration Number and ID only after receiving the registration fee.
3. Submitted abstract must be as per the section/theme of First Asian Philosophy Congress Circular. Abstract on acceptance is subjected to be placed before the programme committee for consideration. Final decision will be informed to the delegate through website.
4. All participant’s research paper/presentation should reach us latest by 20th February 2010, which will be referred to review committee and if required for finalizing presentation schedule of the Congress. The Presentation schedule will be notified on the official website of the Congress www.asianphilosophy.org after 20th Feb 2010.
5. Please send your paper to info@asianphilosophy.org in MSWord doc format only. If diacritic fonts used then send the font also.

Please visit www.asianphilosophy.org for the updated version.